The Long and Short of It.

We ask the attention of our skeptical readers to the following extract from an Ohio paper, where we find it credited to Rev Dr Thompson, editor of the New York Christian Advocate. We consider that it clears up the whole matter, and would hope, were we not too well acquainted with the parties, that it would "shut up" certain "peace" editors who are, or pretend to be, dreadfully exercised about the freedom of the press, the pen and the tongue. However, they can choose which horn of the dilemma they please, which the Rev. Dr presents them.

"A man has no right to advise another to steal, to murder, to take up arms against the Government, or to commit any other crime. If he so advises he becomes an enemy to society, and any plea in regard to his right of speech or opinion, cannot exempt him from punishment. A man has no more right to aid and abet treason—no matter what his opinions may be—than he has to rob, to murder, to burn or destroy his neighbor. This is true doctrine, and the man who will not acknowledge it, is either a knave or a fool. He who sets the law at defiance should suffer the penalty prescribed for the offence; the robber should be imprisoned, the murderer hung, and those who aid and abet crime should be made to feel that they cannot do so with impunity. No guaranty of freedom of opinion or of speech will warrant criminal transactions, the firing of a dwelling, or the application of the torch to the powder magazine. Individual rights must give way to the good of the community—the right to speak must be subsidiary to the good of the State, and he who is so tenacious of individual comfort or privileges as not to yield something in a great emergency, may be treated as a public enemy."

The Gold Region of the Upper Columbia.

The following extract of a letter from Colville, to the Dalles Mountaineer, gives the most satisfactory accounts of the gold discoveries on the Upper Columbia and the geographical and mineralogical character of that region we have seen. The probabilities are, that in another year, steamers will ply for a long stretch on the river and lakes above Colville.

"From another letter of the same date, we make the following extract:

I have to advise you that five men of the prospecting party have got back. They give an encouraging account of the Upper Columbia. They say they were up something like three hundred miles and found gold almost all the way up, until they came to the Lakes—the first one is about seventy miles from Colville. They passed through this lake ninety miles, then through 'sloughs' a distance of nine miles, then to another lake called the second Columbia River Lake about eighty miles in length; then they passed through a low marshy country, like the Cariboo for a distance of about fifty miles, then they came to the most favorable looking country for gold that they had ever seen—greatly resembling the rich mining districts in California. The party went up this rich country about six miles, when they came to a place in the river where they upset their boat and lost all their provisions except some flour and their shovels. They then prospected the bar of the river, and on the first trial they found a prospect that would yield $25 to the hand, with a rocker. The gold generally was heavier than that found lower down on the Columbia. The party will build a large boat, with which they intend to go right back, taking with them provisions to last all winter. The river is navigable for large sized vessels up to the point where [illegible]."

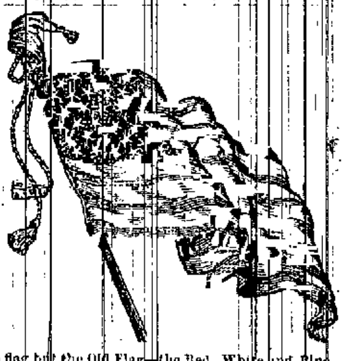
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 15, 1861.

Senator Stark.—We see that the Oregon Democrat is laboring to produce the impression that Mr. Stark is a Union Man. Here such an effort would be waste of time and words. The Advertiser, which would fain labor to produce that impression, has abandoned the folly. There will be presented to the Senate of the United States evidence which cannot be impeached, that Mr. Stark is not a Union man, and that he has avowed, time and again, that his sympathies and feelings are with the South and against the government of the United States. On these grounds we are opposed to the appointment of Benj. Stark as Senator. We make no personal war upon Mr. Stark. Socially and as a citizen we have no complaint against him. He has long been a resident of our city, has done much for its benefit; and if he has been successful in his enterprises, intended alike to benefit himself and others, we shall rejoice that it is so; if he has been unfortunate as many others have been, and is struggling to sustain his pecuniary interests, he will have our regrets and sympathies.—We are opposed to Mr. Stark for taking a position in the present rebellion against the government that protects him and his property, and in favor of the rebellion and the rebels of the South.

Distinguished Arrest.—A letter to the Sacramento Union, dated St. Louis, Oct. 22d, mentions the arrest and imprisonment of Col. Samuel B. Churchill. This gentleman was one of the most eloquent lawyers of that city, and he was also a member of the State Convention, which had just adjourned. He was formerly a Know Nothing, and last fall a Bell and Everett candidate for elector. At that time he professed a great regard for the Union, but latterly he has been a rampant secessionist. The particular offence for which he is arrested, was his giving aid and comfort to the enemy by his speeches and speaking and abusive sentiments.

Col. Churchill is a large property owner; he is charged, besides using his tongue in a free maner against the government and in favor of the rebellion, with encouraging young men to join the rebel army and also giving money to aid the cause. Last fall he stumped the State in favor of State rights as understood in the South—that is, that any State has a right, whenever it chooses, to secede from the Union.—Churchill will now have a good time in mourning over the ingratitude of the Republic.

The Advertiser heads one of its metaphysical articles, "Blessed are the peacemakers." The editor applies this quotation to himself. We beg to suggest to him that in connection with the above, there is an equally important remark, "Blessed are the pure in heart." The Advertiser has more than once given its readers to understand, that its great object in breaking down the best government and best institutions on earth,—is to benefit the party! He may lay his claim, before men, in the columns of the Advertiser, to the blessing promised "to the peace-maker," but he will do well to recollect that other remark of the Divine Author, "Blessed are the pure in heart." Some months ago he would sooner have taken into his hands molten iron, than to have avowed opinions which he now scatters over his columns with a lavish hand.

Resignation of Beauregard.—Our last despatches represent that Beauregard had resigned his position as commander of the Confederated forces. We have the following despatch by the last mail, which we neglected to copy yesterday morning, which would show that he had left the army, and was on his way south:

"Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—The Baltimore Sun says that Beauregard was at Gordonsville, Va., on Monday, bound for Charleston."

From Our Correspondent.

Dalles, Nov. 10th, 1861.

I arrived here Friday evening, having had a pleasant trip from Portland on the river steamers. It rained, and sometimes it poured down for a change, but a comfortable boat and pleasant company made the outside world cause little trouble. When we arrived at the Cascades the weather had improved and the mists hanging about the mountain-tops added no little to the picturesque character of the scene.

To more completely enjoy the wildness of the mountains and the turbulance of the river, we took a free gratis walk upon that ticklish specimen of art and monopoly, the wooden railway around the portage and finally found ourselves safe upon the "Idahoe," where we found, as of old, the gentlemanly captain, the good cook, and the "devil of a fellow," who does the clerk. Don't be frightened at the expression, Mr. Editor, for Knaggs fills the bill and won't deny the items. I expect the clerk of the "Idahoe" is honest. No doubt of it in fact. But the "Carrie Ladd" has a clerk who will do to bet on, for I heard him declare that since the company had been a little unfortunate on the upper river, he had given them full half of the earnings of the boat. And really, to be good looking, gentlemanly, and honest besides, is a combination of valuable qualities one might envy him. We arrived at the Dalles the evening the Indian murderers were hung. Upon which occasion, I understand, there was quite a parade of dragoons, infantry, and fire-men. One of the Indians weakened a little, and one of them, named Hon-wau-Kie, died particularly brave. When the sheriff tied his arms he smiled and said, "Why do you tie me, I am not afraid." "I know your heart is big, and you do not fear to die," said the officer, "but that is our way, always to do." "All right then," said Mr. Indian, and went off bravely.

They have added Powder river to Salmon river and nobody can exaggerate the stories that are true. Fortunes have been made. I heard a letter from Vic. Trevitt read, which is interesting and reliable. Vic, writes in a style which is very "chaste" and always "classical" and which I cannot hope to do justice to, as all his friends will be aware. A half day's work of two men cleaned up 2½ lb advordupois weight of gold. One claim has paid $6,000 in 4 days. A young man from Portland who had taken up heavy amounts of goods, some time since which many expected would ruin him, had become rich by the turn of affairs. Another, who left the Dalles six weeks since, had cleared $30,000, and every thing was true and more besides. The "Western," where I stop, is a good house and well filled, in fact there is a rush there day and night. I have enjoyed glimpses of human nature, and last night, after going to bed, I could hear a great deal going on. One side of me, in an adjoining room, a miner from Salmon river, was giving his experience, and it seems the diggings are in a swale, high up on the mountain side and the gold is found in blue mud or clay, about two feet to the bed rock, and the bed rock is so soft they can only tell by the color when they get to it. The gold diminishes in quantity as you leave the centre where it so plentiful, growing "small by degrees and beautifully less" until, much to the disappointment of miners, it winks out entirely. I have concluded to hurry the less, since learning that the gold found is only valued at about $12 to the oz.

The other adjoining room contained a gentleman direct from prospecting Powder river, who modestly told of a prospect of $150 to the pan found there, which of course 'aint much at this present time, might have done very well in California in '49 though. So dreaming of mountains of gold I fell asleep, and only wakened with the idea of a house a-fire, which after all was only about a hundred new lodgers going to bed. About two o'clock my roommates, two, came in and I heard the remark, "'Aint it too — d— bad to win all night and then quit losing." Evidently my companions in somnolency worked by the card, and I listened to the experiences of the night, and the sound of a stocking full of loose change rattled harmoniously in my ear. Gradually the conversation became more confidential and turned to a whisper, then all was still, except the nasal performance of neighboring sleepers came in lessened cadence to my ears. One performed more original than the others and successfully imitated the puff of a river steamer, and listening to and admiring his performance, I slept again.

One notable feature of the Friday execution was, that as the four criminals were swung off, there started up on a high pinnacle of rock near by a hideous savage, who sounded the war-whoop, and launched forth into a passionate and excited war speech, calling on his tribe to vengeance.

I am about leaving town, and there is no telling if I shall be heard from in fabled Cariboo, turn up in auriferous Salmon, be found on the Powder river or travel to that bourne from whence no traveller returns.—God wills it all.

X. X.

Thanksgiving.—Many of the citizens of this State would be gratified if the Governor, following the example of the Governor of California and those of other States, would designate a day of the present month as a day for Thanksgiving and Prayer. In fear that this may not be done, and in accordance with the suggestions of many of our citizens, we suggest that the people of Oregon set apart THURSDAY, the 28th day of the present month for that purpose. Surely in the present condition of the country, the people of Oregon have much to be thankful for, and have great cause to implore for the people of other States, the blessings of peace and plenty which we so abundantly enjoy.

General Sherman.—This officer, now in command of the Federal forces in Kentucky, was formerly a resident and much esteemed citizen of San Francisco. Gen. Stone, of the Potomac army, was once a resident of California. They are both West Point graduates.

Gov. Downey has appointed the 28th inst. to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer in California. Many of the people of Oregon, would be gratified by the appointment of a day by its Governor, for the same purpose. But we cannot expect it. Gov. Whiteaker, in compliance with a request of ladies of Oregon City, two years ago, named a day for Thanksgiving, but in such a manner as seriously to grieve our religious people.

The Richmond Enquirer insists that the present war is only to determine the boundaries of New Dahomey. That paper claims that Maryland, Kentucky, all Virginia and Missouri shall belong to the slave Republic. On no other terms will the South make peace.

An assay of a specimen of silver ore brought from the Blue Mountains by Thomas Carter, Esq., it is said, yields a handsome per cent. of silver. The lead is reported to be very extensive.

It is asserted that five hundred Secessionists are encamped on and near the Colorado river, and that in Toulumne, Mariposa and San Joaquin counties, other parties are organizing to join them. It is probable that they are on the way to Texas, though some believe they are waiting for reinforcements from that region.

☞ Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches, or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

CITY.

WILLAMETTE THEATRE.—This [illegible] was well filled last night, with a goodly number of ladies and gentlemen and, judging from the applause and many encores the performances received, we think that every one got his money's worth. All the everything passed off pleasantly with the exception of a little skirmish which occurred in the pit, among the "b'hoys," which caused some stir in other portions of the house. But peace was soon restored and things went on swimmingly. An entire new bill will be presented to night to the public. Mr Dennison also requested us to say that he will have a special officer in the house.

CIRCUIT COURT.—THURSDAY, Nov 14 1861.—PETITION FOR DIVORCE.—Alonzo Gates vs Ilara M. Gates. Divorce granted.

PETITION FOR DIVORCE.—Wm K. Dupee vs. Harriet M Dupee. Divorce granted.

The State of Oregon vs Ferdinand Patterson.—The Grand Jury in the above case brought in a bill of indictment, charging the defendant with murder in the first degree for killing Geo. Staples, arraigned, and on motion of Prosecuting Attorney, bound in recognizance to $10,000.

The State of Oregon vs Andrew Hackinger.—The Grand Jury in the above case brought in a bill of indictment, charging the defendant with larceny, in stealing a gold watch belonging to A. Starr.

GOOD.—We notice that in accordance with our suggestions the other day, in regard to the building of sewers, several of our property holders have already commenced the good work in front of their premises.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—Company I, 9th Infantry, arrived here last night from Fort Yamhill, and proceeded to Vancouver.

FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA, &c.—We have the Victoria papers to the 9th. The Colonist of the 6th says:

"Three Frenchmen (miners) arrived here on Monday on the Otter, from Cariboo, who give an extraordinary account of the gold taken from their claim. Five of their partners—and there were eight in all—remain during the winter at Cariboo. The sum taken out was $105,000. The three who arrived brought down the bags to back up their assertions."

"The Victorians are getting up a project for constructing a telegraph line to Washington Territory. They have two routes under consideration. One from Victoria to Race Rocks, about 26 miles, and lay a telegraph cable across the Straits of Fuca, which at this point are about seven miles, or at most not more than nine. This would connect them with Washington Territory. And the other via San Juan and Orcas Islands to the continent, and thence down to Olympia, from Olympia to Portland, and thence to Yreka.—With this project completed, the Colonist says, "we would be put in instantaneous communication with the Atlantic States and British provinces."

The Colonist has the "Nor' Wester" of August 1st. That paper is published at Assiniboia, on the Red River. At that time the the reports of gold discoveries on the Saskatchewan, were exciting considerable interest. Col. Robinson of St. Paul, Minnesota, was making up a party to go to the mountains.—One or more of the merchants of the settlement were going in the fall.—The summer hunt for buffalo was over and 900 had been slaughtered in a single chase.

HARKER BROTHERS'

Portland, May 1, 1861 dy

The Portland Advertiser has occasionally represented that a resort must be had to drafting in the northern States to supply soldiers for the army. The Advertiser gives this as evidence of the unpopularity of the war. The same paper is extremely cautious not to state the manner in which the Southern armies are supplied with troops.—Throughout the South, this is done by impressments. The Richmond Dispatch, some days ago, in referring to the fact that the militia of Berkeley county would not join the army, stated that they would be treated as deserters or alien enemies. A letter in the Baltimore American says that in the neighboring counties of Virginia, every man within the ages of eighteen and forty five is compelled to do military duty, and allow their property to be wasted and their families to starve—giving their time to their oppressors. They are told that Virginia wants volunteers, and they will save them the trouble by writing down their names for them. This is one way of obtaining volunteers in Virginia.

THE PEACE PARTY OF MARYLAND.—The Maryland "Planter's Advocate", a peace party paper, expresses "the hope" for the early deliverance of that State from the "Lincoln rule," and adds:

"Our only hope will then be in that future—not far off, we trust—when with the aid of our Confederate friends, Maryland will again be set free, and when the first act of their people will be to annul an election carried [illegible] the dictation of despotism."

The hope of this peace paper is that the State will go in the hands of the Confederates. Thus much for the organ of the peace party of Maryland.

An Eastern ship arrived at one of our seaports with a mixed cargo, consisting of 1,000 cases of silk and 40 do. yellow fever.—Boston Journal.

[illegible] the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a life of existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for [illegible] catalogue of human diseases [illegible] upon the system—drawing its thousands through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the [illegible] who having recovered their [illegible] impelled by gratitude make [illegible] and their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of [illegible] their publicity and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the [illegible] recovery of his health. Borne down by the [illegible] the vicious practices of [illegible] depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the [illegible] of life, I sought the advice of many physicians who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas after a few weeks, and in several instances [illegible] treatment I found, to my unutterable [illegible] that instead of relief my symptoms became [illegible] Learning [illegible] and being told by one that my disease was principally confined to the brain, [illegible] I despaired of every [illegible] my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort [illegible] with but a faint hope called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after [illegible] my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected; the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I [illegible] with a ruined constitution, as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do so [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge the great satisfaction at my complete recovery from these symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire [illegible] which you said were principally the cause of this sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully [illegible] strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you can put this letter in the newspapers. [illegible] gratefully yours, THOMAS HAY[illegible].

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of [illegible] my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon [illegible] so as to defy the skill of my physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my [illegible] the ground [illegible] the slightest warning [illegible] agonies. I yet dragged the [illegible] of a life and soon learned to look upon those who [illegible] shelter me from danger, as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my misery. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking [illegible] a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my [illegible] and of my inability to reward him for his services [illegible] he at once undertook my case, and [illegible] I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I [illegible] of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted to make the case public [illegible] that the [illegible] medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
